CL Educate collaborates with White Glow Consulting to promote international education products

CL Educate Ltd. and White Glow Consulting have collaborated in promoting co-branded international education products like GMAT, GRE, SAT-ACT entrance preparation courses in certain locations in India, Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

Building on the Career Launcher' existing GMAT prep classes, these new courses focus on the higher-order thinking skills that applicants need to master in order to do well in the exam. The joint collaboration courses aims to offer extensive material to aspirants to help them ace their tests with high scores. "We are looking forward to this collaboration and hope it will benefit global education aspirants across the country", said Nikhil Mahajan, Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer of CL Educate Limited.

"We know that the MBA admissions landscape is particularly competitive for Indian applicants who want to gain admission to the world's top-ranked business schools. We hope to fill that gap through our collaboration." said Rajiv Ganjoo, Founder and CEO of White Glow Consulting. For more information visit www.whiteglowconsulting.com
