CL Educate and Kestone have announced the fourth edition of the Young India Challenge (YIC) 2016, an innovative quiz platform, to be conducted across schools and colleges. One lakh students from about 5,000 plus colleges from 80 cities are expected to participate. YIC also encourages corporates and entrepreneurs to support the budding nextgen entrepreneurs.

The initial round of YIC 2016 was flagged off in August. City/Regional rounds will be held in September followed by the finale in October. The winners will be awarded prizes worth Rs. 10 lakh, including mentorship, learning and business.

The challenge is open to all enterprising youngsters who are keen to explore their potential. To register, visit <http://www.clyic.com/> and click on 'I am interested'. For details, visit <https://www.facebook.com/clyic/> or drop a mail at response@clyic.in.
