CL Educate Limited launched 'A Million Innovators' program along with the WAIN platform, with the aim to create a real time collaboration between industry and institutions in the area of research and innovation. The event held at The Park, New Delhi, brought together thought leaders from the academic and the corporate world. Satya Narayanan. R, Founder and Chairman of CL Educate Limited, shared his vision, "This platform uniquely brings together the innovator, the industry and the institution for real time collaboration and also enables other valuable services such as IP management, industry funded research projects, mentoring, talent identification, business incubation and funding".

As a part of the event, there was a panel discussion on 'The imperatives to nurture and support innovation: perspectives' which was being moderated by Dr. Poulomi Ganguly, Director of Research, CL Educate. A select group of Chancellors, Vice Chancellors, Dean (Research), and also senior corporate leaders including the CXOs attended the unveiling ceremony. Many of the attendee institutions and corporates are already members of the WAIN and the 'A Million Innovators' program.
