The Civil services preliminary exam (CSP) will be held on August 7, 2016. The marathon efforts that you have put in for the exam will bear fruit very soon. Here are 5 things that you must remember.

Focus on what you have already prepared

The last minute itch of picking up things that you have not been able to master is a normal reaction. It is best to keep that itch away. It is what you have done till now that will get you through the exam.
